NERI REACQUIRES THE MODUS TRADEMARK

Less than a year after bringing back the family business entirely in the hands of the founders, the reacquisition of the MODUS trademark has just been concluded

Only a year after the acquisition of the historical company based in Longiano by the founding family, NERI proudly announces that it has come once again into possession of the MODUS trademark as well.

Full satisfaction with this new goal was expressed by the CEO of the company from Romagna, Isacco Neri, who this week has placed the official signature on the transaction.

To the refined style is now joined by the know-how and the unmistakable quality of NERI workmanship, which for 50 years has been a protagonist of high-range Made in Italy products in the world, thanks to a mix between the expansion into foreign markets and the ability to maintain a small-scale philosophy in the creation of its products.

MODUS offers a vast choice of solutions to make your environments unique: elements of cast-iron decor such as stairs and railings, gates and shelters, bases for tables and outdoor lighting to enhance any type of space with tailor-made elements, unique and refined.

Forms and details which, in addition to their functionality add an artistic and welcoming touch to the domestic environment and more: the Modus line is designed also to furnish historical buildings, public spaces, hotels and residences.
